

Cover and excerpted content from “Southwest Art” Oct/Nov Issue

Ones to COLLECT

A COLLECTION IS A DEEPLY PERSONAL INVESTMENT OF TIME, MONEY, AND SELF. IT'S A THOUGHTFUL EXPRESSION, AND AN INSIGHTFUL EXTENSION, OF ITS curator, speaking not only to its owner but also to others fortunate to experience it firsthand. Whether you're just beginning your western art journey or are a well-seasoned traveler, we're sure you'll find something on the following pages that piques your interest—something that may make the perfect addition (or two) to your collection. Landscape? Floral? Sculpture? Wildlife? Figure? Still life? Enjoy the creative adventure—without ever having to hit the road. Happy trails!

Discover original paintings and sculptures

Katherine Crinklaw

From her gallery/studio in her hometown Gustine California, artist Katherine Crinklaw creates commissioned paintings and hand painted ceramics, for her clients and display. Her works vary from realism, to abstract, and representationalism. Painting is her forty-five year passion. Her enthusiasm and passion for art, fills her charming gallery. Representation: Crinklaw Fine Art Gallery, 377 Fifth Street, Gustine, Ca. 95322
▲ Sun and Flowers, Mixed Media Acrylic and Ink, 36 x 48.

Katherine@crinklawfineart.com | 209.573.3523
www.crinklawfineart.com